Your Executive Director

Dear Residents, Families, and Team,
As we welcome the month of November, we are reminded of the beauty this season brings. The cool autumn breeze and colorful fall foliage create a wonderful atmosphere for reflection and gratitude. Along with the seasonal shift, don't forget we've just experienced the fall back time change, giving us an extra hour of rest as the days grow shorter and the nights longer. Let's take this opportunity to slow down, enjoy the crisp air, and appreciate the coziness of the season. One of the highlights of November is, of course, Thanksgiving. It's a time when we come together as a community to express our gratitude for the wonderful moments and people we have in our lives. I am excited to announce that we will be hosting our Thanksgiving Luncheon later this month, featuring all of the traditional favorites that make this holiday so special. We look forward to gathering with everyone to share in a delicious meal and create more cherished memories.

Once again, thank you all for your continued support, care, and kindness within our community. As the days grow cooler, may your hearts remain warm. Let's make this November one to remember!

Warm regards,

Kendra Simpson

Executive Director

Serving Excellence: Margarita Carrion

We are thrilled to shine the spotlight on Margarita Carrion, whose exceptional service has earned her the title of a phenomenal server within our community. Margarita's dedication, warmth, and consistent excellence in her role have made her an invaluable part of our dining team. What truly sets Margarita apart is her radiant smile, which lights up any room she enters. Her warm, welcoming presence creates an atmosphere of comfort and positivity, making every dining experience special. It's as though Margarita has been part of our community for a long time, even though she's a more recent addition. Her natural ability to connect with residents and staff alike makes it feel like she's been with us forever. Margarita's dedication to her work is clear in everything she does. Whether she's serving a table or assisting her colleagues, she approaches each task with professionalism, efficiency, and a genuine desire to make others feel cared for. Thank you, Margarita, for your outstanding contributions and for bringing such light and positivity to our community. We are incredibly proud to have you as part of our team!

Family Games for After the Feast

The dishes are done, the leftovers are put away, and now is the time for a slice of pie and some good old-fashioned fun. These party games are sure to score big points at holiday gatherings.

Charades. This classic activity requires players to silently act out a word or phrase for their teammates to guess before the timer runs out. Add a seasonal spin by suggesting festive phrases to guess, such as "turkey" or "parade."

Who am I? Write down the names of famous people, real or fictional, on sticky notes. On each player's turn, they blindly choose a sticky note to place on their forehead. The other players must give clues to help the person guess the mystery identity. Simple, but silly!

Blindfolded sketch. Giggle till you gobble by blindfolding players and instructing them to draw a turkey on a piece of paper. Give step-by-step directions, and award points for every body part that's in the right spot!

Board and card games. The classics rarely disappoint. Pull out board games you have on hand and vote on which one to play. A deck of cards provides endless opportunities for group fun, from crazy eights to rummy to spoons.

A to Z gratitude. Go around the table and have each person share something they're thankful for, but it has to start with the next letter of the alphabet. Continue until all letters have been used.
