Happy New Year!

It's a time to reflect on what "was" and renew what "could be." Do you stick with the traditional resolutions this year or go for the gusto? Exercise more, Eat better... or Work on your bucket list?

What is a bucket list? A list of your life goals. To get started, do just that, make a list of your life goals. Next, bring joy to others by helping. Are you living your dream and finding joy in your life? Don't forget to give credit to those who have helped you!

Have you ever thought of...
A road trip coast to coast
Publishing a book

- Painting a Mural
- Getting a job as a singer
- Writing a screen play
- Trying a fried snickers candy bar at the State Fair

Whatever you choose to do in life, may it fulfill your dreams and keep you smiling.

Many blessings to you and yours!

Residents' New Year Resolutions

- Joe Freshnock – Be a happy person and make the elderly happy.
- Lois Hesser – Don't use my phone as often as I do.
- Jean Alexander – Try to help others as often as I can.
- Jane McHugh – Be a little nicer and improve her hand and foot game.
- Max Jones – Lose Weight.

*We want to wish Barbara Lewis all the best of luck on her move to California. Lewisville Estates thanks you for all your help over the years as a resident ambassador. We will miss you!
